Team USA Medals at the International Biology Olympiad Four-member US Team wins 4 medals

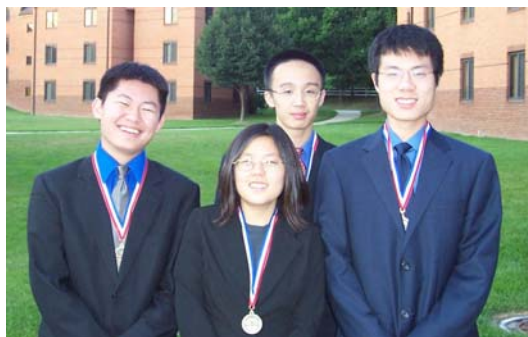

McLean, Virginia, July 17, 2006 - Virginia-based Center for Excellence in Education (CEE) today announces that their United States Biology Olympiad (USABO) Medalists were awarded 4 medals at the International Biology Olympiad (IBO), the premiere biology competition for top high school students.

The IBO was hosted this year in Rio Cuarto, Argentina for approximately 200 students representing 52 countries.

The US medalists are:

- Gold Medalist Jawon Lee, Torrey Pines High School
- Gold Medalist Allen Lin, Holmdel High School
- Silver Medalist Meng Xiao He, East Chapel Hill High School
- Silver Medalist Jason Wu, Ladue Horton Watkins High School

About the Center for Excellence in Education

The Center for Excellence in Education was co-founded in 1983 by the late Admiral H.G. Rickover and Joann P. DiGennaro, President of the Center, to nurture young scholars to careers of excellence and leadership in science and technology. Luminaries serving on the Center's Board of Trustees include: Senators Joseph Lieberman and George Allen, Congressman Tom Davis, Congresswoman Ellen Tauscher, and the Honorable Frank Carlucci, Former Secretary of Defense. The Center sponsors the Research Science Institute \(RSI\), and the USA Biology Olympiad for high school students. For more information about the Center and its programs, visit CEE's website at www.cee.org.
